* Members are offered memberships in both societies, the Geologische Vereinigung e.V. and the Deutsche Mineralogische Gesellschaft for a total fee of: Active members EUR 95,-, Student members EUR 40,00 (includes all journals of GV and DMG).

Student membership in both only is possible for students not older than 35 years.

Please fill in this section only if you want a membership in both societies:

Sections/Working Groups:

The DMG is organized in four sections. In accordance with your particular area of interest you should join one or more of these sections. Membership in a section does not involve any additional financial obligations.

- Section on Chemistry, Physics and Crystallography of Minerals
- Section on Geochemistry
- Section on Petrology and Petrophysics
- Section on Applied Mineralogy in Technology and Environmental Concerns

Working groups reflect interdisciplinary objectives. Three working groups are registered at present. Please indicate your interest in one or more of these working groups.

- Working Group on Ore Deposits
- Working Group on Mineralogical Museums and Collections
- Working Group on Archaeometry and Preservation of Cultural Heritage

Please send application form by surface mail or fax to:
